

PROGRAM OF STUDY

All graduate students must complete a Program of Study form in consultation with their Program Coordinator. The Program of Study outlines required and elective courses in their program, as well as transfer or waived credits. It is signed by the student, the Program Coordinator, and the Dean of the Graduate School. Program of Study forms are added to students' official academic records.