

CONSTITUTIONS (CON)

(3 credits)

Students must complete one course that teaches the constitutions of the United States and the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. Courses which meet this requirement will:

- Require students to study the Constitutions of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts and of the United States.
- Consider the historical context, addressing
 - antecedents in English law
 - the idea of written fundamental law
 - the context of colonial history
 - failed predecessors (e.g., the 1778 constitutions and the Articles of Confederation)
 - mechanism of drafting, ratification, and amendment
 - influence of the Massachusetts Constitution on the U.S. Constitution.
- Consider political thought in contemporary society, addressing
 - how each constitution shapes modern life
 - differing interpretations, including by the courts
 - current issues related to each constitution
 - basic national, state and/or local political processes, and the rights and obligations of citizenship.
