

UNIVERSITY POLICE DEPARTMENT

The Worcester State University Police Department's main priority is to provide the safest and most secure environment possible for the students, faculty, staff, and visitors that comprise the institution's community. WSU believes that safety is everyone's responsibility and encourages students, faculty, and staff to engage in community policing and to report any suspicious activity to Worcester State University Police. Policing is provided 24 hours a day throughout the calendar year by a full-time staff of sworn officers, security officers, and dispatchers. Worcester State University Police officers enforce the rules and regulations of Worcester State University in conjunction with applicable state and federal laws. The department also provides crime prevention programs and seminars scheduled at intervals throughout the year as well as ad hoc programs when requested by any constituent of the Worcester State University community.

The Worcester State University Police Department and the Parking and Transportation Office are located on the first floor of Wasylean Hall.
